Health and Safety Policy

Statement of General Policy

Foresight will take all steps necessary to ensure the health, safety and welfare of all employees and volunteers at work.

Foresight will also take responsibility for the health and safety of clients, volunteers, staff members and other visitors to the centre. Foresight will adhere to the requirements of the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974, the Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999, and other relevant health and safety legislation and codes of practice. To achieve those objectives we have appointed a designated member of staff to be responsible for the organisations health and safety; to keep workplace health, safety and welfare procedures under constant review; to liaise with the Health and Safety Executive where necessary; and to keep the staff, volunteers and the Trustee Board abreast of new legislation, EU directives, Regulations and British Standards, in order to ensure ongoing compliance with the law.

Foresight will:

- Establish, maintain and regularly review safety systems and risk assessments
- Make regular risk assessments available to employees
- Take appropriate preventative/protective measures
- Provide adequate and competent supervision of all activities involving risk
- Ensure appropriate training in health and safety is delivered
- Establish and maintain systems for consulting paid and voluntary workers about health and safety issues
- Take health and safety considerations into account when planning developments in the service, purchasing equipment and occupying new premises
- Maintain accurate records of accidents and other events with health and safety implications and review and monitor these records to establish what remedial action, if any, should be taken
- Appoint competent personnel to secure compliance with statutory duties, and to undertake reviews of the policy as necessary.
